

MAKE OUR SCHOOLS A PRIORITY

Our Florida public schools are filled with professional and skilled educators who are essential in helping our kids attain a world-class education. But recruiting and retaining these professionals requires professional pay. One out of every two new Florida teachers leaves the profession within five years, many because of low pay. Keeping these great teachers is vital to the quality of our public schools and critical to student success.

Get involved and help make our schools a priority!
www.MakeOurSchoolsaPriority.org